

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

March 23

1999

Marshall releases FY 98 economic impact report

Marshall contributed more than $722 million to Alabama's economy in fiscal year 1998, according to the economic impact report released Monday. Of that amount, $223 million was paid in civil service salaries, related costs and travel. The total also includes $499 million spent on locally procured services, contractor support, construction and reimbursable activities.

Cultural Diversity Leadership Program Tues. canceled due to low enrollment. Next session May 26-27

New staffing assignments to be posted on 'Inside Marshall' March 29. See Website for schedule

Telecast addresses concerns of Y2K

The Employee and Organizational Development Office will sponsor the live, interactive broadcast of "Y2K: Triage for Minimizing Organizational Risk" on Wednesday from 1-4 p.m. The seminar will be broadcast center-wide on Marshall Continual Learning Channel-14.

View 'Time for Courage' on Centerwide television

Marshall cable channel 3 is showing "Time for Courage," a video on Dr. Wernher von Braun. Show times are March 24, 26, 29 and 31 at noon and 2 p.m.

Name the Health and Fitness Expo. Send ideas to David Thaxton by e-mail no later than Tuesday